conveyed to the marble-room and there, in charge of Sergeant-at-Arms Valentine, it remained until the hour arrived for the commencement of the ceremonies in the Senate chamber. The casket, which was covered with black cloth, was bardly visible beneath the magnificent foral deaplay. At the head was a huge banch of magnificent American beauty and blush roses. There were two pillows of call filles, roses, and camellas—one of them with the words "At rest" in purple immortelles thereon.

A wreath of roses, camellas, and ivy—from Misses S. O. and S. H. B. Mason—was next one of the pillows, and the remainder of the available space was taken up by a very large wreath of deep-cream roses and lilies of the valley, adorned with violet ribbon. On a table in one of the window recesses was a fine wreath, sent by order of President Harrisen. It was composed of roses, camelias, and lilies of the valley, and was tied with broad velvet ribbon.

The body was enclosed in a cloth-covered casket devoid of silver ornaments save a plain sliver plate bearing the following inscription:

THE PRESIDENT'S REGIET.

Yesterday the Vice-President received from Secretary Halford a message expressing President Harrison's regret at being unable to attend the funeral exercises to-day. It was as follows:

"EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, May 14.—Sir.—The President directs me to acknowledge the receipt of your note informing him of the sudden death of the Hon. John N. Barbour, late senator from the State of Virginia, and inviting him to be present at the funeral services to be held in the Senate chamber at 1 o'clock on Monday the 16th instant.

"This sad announcement reached him just as he is leaving the cuty with Mrs. Harrison, who has been in fill health for some time. But for the command of the physician that Mrs. Harrison's trip be not further postponed the President would esteem it a privilege to remain and participate with the Senate in the last offices of respect to the memory of the distinguished Senator."

following resolution was unanimously adopted:
That we have heard with great sorrow of the death of the Hon. John S. Barbour, by which calamity Virginia has lost one of her truest and most devoted sons and a faithful, wise, and farseeing counsellor; that the Democratic party has lost one of its most trusted and tried leaders, whose wisdom and ability in a time of great

Colored Base-Ballists at Island Park.

Two colored files—the Manhattan Giants, of this city, and the Red Stockings, of Norfok—played an exhibition game of ball at Island Park yesterday afternoon before a crowd of 700 spectators, who greatly enjoyed the contest. The majority of the "cranks" who viewed the singsing-match were darkies, but a number of white people were also present and were richly repaid for the small admission fee they paid, Both clubs were uniformed and nearly all of the players showed that they had sufficiently entered into the spirit of true Americanism to manipulate the sphere in a skilful manner. The dusky "enformities" of Richmond succeeded in overwhelming the sable representatives of "The City by the Sea" by a score of 14 to 7.

SUCCESS OF NATIONAL DEMOCRACY. vert the People of Geochland,

[Cerrespondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] GOOCHLAND COURTROUSE, May 16.—Nearly all the enthusiastic Democrats in Goochland as-of the enthusiastic Democrats in Goochland assembled to-day at the Courthouse in massimaeting for the purpose of electing delegates to the State convention which will meet in Richmond on the 19th instant. The following delegates were chosen: Joseph Leadbetter, William T. St. Clair, R. D. James, A. X. Monteiro, Frederick M. Parriel, and Richard A. Trice. At large: Robert F. Vaughan, B. O. James, and C. L. Leake. Colonel B. O. James introduced a resolutions as follows, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Goochland county deprecates the unfortunate feeling engendered between prominent party leaders in the State of Virginia on account of their support of one or the other of the two most prominent aspirants for the predicatial nomination at the coming National Democracy is paramount to the success of any individual.

The resolution caused considerable discussion, it being deemed antagonistic to Mr. Cleveland by some of his zealous adherents. An elequent speech was made by Colonel James in advocacy of it, and Mr. E. H. Lively, Major James B. Ferguson, and Mr. Charles V. Meredith, of your city (who was accorded the privileges of the gloof for twenty minutes) zealously and forcibly opposed it. Colonel B. O. James, being asked by your dential ticket, replied: "W. R. Morrison, of Illinois, and Russell, of Massachusetts." The remainder of the delegation are for Hill, but are uninstructed.

TALKED ABOUT THE APTHOPRIATIONS.

Considerable discussion, was insulged in concerning the appropriations made by the Council for street improvements during the year, but no further action was taken. The City Engineer advised the ward committees that if would be better not to confine themselves to the limit of the appropriations (of $12,000 for each ward), but to allow their lists to reach about $13,000 or $15,500. The committee did not decide when it would meet to revise the lists returned by the before an audience of 150 or more persons. He was introduced by Mr. G. M. Smithdeal and opened with reference to his successful work in recent weeks in different sections of Virginia. He said he was a native of Georgia and fought four years in the Confederate arm?.

Before proceeding to the discussion of his theme Colonel Cheves stated that in a recent letter to the Dispatch from Onancock he had been accused of denouncing the Democratic and Republican parties and all Christians who did not favor prohibition. He said he had been misquoted, as he did not denounce the two factions, but merely exposed them. One of the planks of the national platforms of both the Republicans and Democrats was opposition to temperance and the legalization of the liquor trade; therefore when a member of either party voted with his side he voted against prohibition. Many church members, whose religious doctrines instructed them to fight liquor, did nothing to overcome the evil. It was to Ahis inconsistency that he referred in almaing to Christians.

The speaker denied the charge that he favored social equality between the whites and negroes, and added that he did not think the colored man wanted it. He had seen the day when he hated Abolitionists as much as any man in the South, and had never favored or advocated social equality. His expressions on this point were very positive and emphatic.

The tolonel said that the platform of the Prohibition party was the absolute prohibition of the manufacture of liquor. There should be national laws forbidding the importation of ardent spirits. But little could be accomplished by local option, as this would not entirely eradicate the evil.

Just before concluding he said that a convention will be held in Lynchburg in June, and on this occasion the Prohibition lists will formally organize and establish a platform for Virginia.

The secturer, who seems to be a great entusiast in his work, made a forcible plea for the cause which he represents, and in closing he requested his auditors to join the ne of Ball with the Physicians.

Another great base-ball event is on the tapis, and the contest, which will take place the latter part of this month, will attract equally as much attention as did the famous fight between the Westmorelands and the Commonwealths. A large and powerful fraternity, known to the public as lawyers, have organized themselves into a club and thrown the gauntiet to the doctors. The "pulse-feelers" have not yet accepted the challenge, but they will certainly do so in case they can make up a team.

The proceeds of the game will be donated to the Stuart-monument fund.

The following are the legal base-ballists; Judge E. C. Minor, manager; Comway R. Sands, catcher; Brooke Page, pitcher; Kirk Mitchell, short-stop; W. K. Mathews, first base; Allen Potts, second base; M. F. Maury, third base; R. Carter Scott, lett field; Raleigh Minor, centre field; H. M. Smith, Jr., right field. Substitutes—W. A. Moncare.

Antrim, and Frank Woon.

If the physicians are so intimidated by the formidable array of attorneys that they decline meeting them the lawyers will straightway challenge the Commonwealth Club team. There are several excellent players on the nine above mentioned, and they can manipulate the sphere with a surprising degree of Skill.

The Barton-Heights Viaduct.

The iron for the Barton-Heights brid has arrived, and the first span is now belt srected. The viaduct will be complete in a few weeks, and will be one of the handsomest bridges in the State.

then I have used it whonever suffering from a cold, and I have many times prescribed it for patients.

"The Allecch's Plaster is the best to be had and has saved many from severe illness, and undoubtedly, if used promptly, will save many valuable lives. Whenever one has a severe cold they should put on an Allecch's Plaster as soon as possible. It should be placed across the chest, the upper margin just below the neck; some hot beef-tea or milk will aid in the treatment. morning at 2 o'clock. The opening is now 100 feet wide and 5 feet deep.

CAHORIA PLOODED.

CAHORIA, ILL., May 13.—The embankment of the Conlogue Railroad Company, about 200 feet long, has given away, and the town is flooded to a depth of several teet. No lives have been lost, but a large amount of damage has been done.

ANOTHER LEVEE GONE.

NEW MADISON, ILL., May 10.—The Madison levee is broken, and all that protects this town from being flooded is the Chicaro and Alton embankment. The water is within two feet of the top of this, and if it gives way, which it threatens to do in several places, the town will be flooded and very serious damage done. The levees guarding Horseshoo Lake are threatening to give way any moment, and danger of a flood in that direction is also imminent.

THE ILLINOIS FOUR MILES WIDE.

I shall always recommend it, not only to-break up colds, but as useful in allaying pains in the chest and in the back. It is a preparation worthy of general confi-dence."

give way any moment, and danger of a flood in that direction is also imminent.

THE ILLINGIS FOUR MILES WIDE.

WHITEMALL, ILL., May 11.—Commencing at Happyville, eight miles west of this place, the Illinois river extends from bluff to bluff, a distance of four and one-half miles. The area of cereflowed land in this county alone is fully 70,000 acres, half of which has been cultivated for years. No crops of any kind will be produced there this season. The water is still rising, and the small part of the sand-ridge north of the Chicage and Alton track that is yet above water will probably be covered. The water is within a foot of the top of the draw-table of the Chicage and Alton track that is yet above water will probably be covered. The water is within a foot of the top of the draw-table of the Chicage and Alton bridge over the Illinois river. It is thought now that the Sny lievek, about which last week grave apprehensions were felt, will be able to withstand the immense water pressure exerted against it. Don't forget the opening of Sot. WELL's new Angostica Bittans were prepared by Dr. J.
G. B. Siegert for his private use. Their reputation is such to-day that they have become generally known as the best appetiting tonic. Be

IT IS AN ERROR.

That's a mistake which is easily made and easily corrected, but there isn't any more than a suit is worth, Don't do it unless you have more money than you know what to do with. Three and one don't make five and never will until we get a new system of arithmetic, but three and one will make five and twice five before you see our prices for such Clothing quoted anywhere eise. They are without a parallel. Perhaps in the whirligig of time it may be quoted again.

but quoted before it never has been.

There isn't much necessity for making ny representations about our suits ; they represent themselves. Some suits give you a good deal less than you expect; our suits reverse that unfor nate situation and give you a good deal more. You don't have to pay much for them and you do get much out of them. The attire that matches our $10 suits in durability is hard to find. We do not claim that it can't be found, but we do most emphatically claim that you can't get anything like it for the money.

$10,$12, and $15
